Mr. & Mrs. Jack Davis
1306 East Walnut Grove
Knoxville, Tennessee

Dear Folks:

I have just learned of your move to Knoxville. I hope that you are enjoying your new home and that everything will be the very best it can possibly be for you.

I regret the pressures and burdens under which you lived while here in Cookeville but appreciate so deeply your attitude and willingness to consider all sides of the questions that faced you.

I wish you were where you could worship with the Laurel Avenue congregation, even though I understand that the Arlington congregation is a very good one. Wherever you go, I know you will be doing all within your power to fulfill your responsibilities to God. It has been a genuine pleasure to know you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
